Re: Reporting of Securities Loans (File No. S7-18-21)

Dear Secretary Countryman:

I am writing in strong support of rule 10c-1, "Reporting of Securities Loans".

I am a normal guy who still believes in my country and the markets that operate within it.

What I don't understand is why there isn't more transparency in the reporting of securities lending and the shorting of securities.

Clearly, there is strong opposition for this proposed rule from the organizations who are currently profiting from the lack of transparency.

If a business or an operation is profitable and legal, then why would it matter if there is transparency or not?

Clearly, the operations that are going on behind the scenes are not legal otherwise they would have no issue sharing their data with the rest of the world.

If you truly are interested in protecting investors and restoring trust in our markets, then this needs to be passed and put into action immediately.

Sincerely,

A Concerned Investor
